Six Hundred People Went Up There on Sunday-Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pir. zini Built the Church.

Seven cars were necessary to carry the nearly six bundred people who went from Richmond Sunday from Elba station at 9 A. M. for Ashland to participate in the dedicatory ceremonies of the new Catholic chapel of St. Anne, in that beautiful village.

The societies taking part in the procession marched, with the St. Mary's brass band, J. A. Grasberger leader at their head, from the cars to the chapel on their arrival there, and were the Catholic Beneficial Society, St. Patrick's Beneficial Society, the McGill Union, St. Mary's Sodality, the Ancient Order of Hibernians, the St. Mary's Social and Beneficial Society and St. Anne's

The solemn ceremonies of the day were under the direction of and conducted by the Very Rev. Joseph Frioli, V. G., assisted by Rev. Fathers Wilson, of Fredericksburg. and Tiernan, of St. Patrick's church, this city. Father Wilson celebrated High Mass and Father Frioli preached an able and interesting sermon, his text being the words: "This Day is Salvation Come to this

THE SERMON.

He said in part: "This is an occasion of joy and gratitude, my brethren; of joy be-cause by dedication this is made the house of God, and gratitude because thereby are means of salvation offered here to those until this time without those great privieges. This ceremony is necessary, because before it this building might have been put to other uses, but now, having been blessed by the Church in the manner you have seen, it becomes the dwelling-place of the Most High God, and must ever remain so. You all remember the altars of Abel and Abraham, the tabernacle of Moses and the magnificent temple of King Solomon, These were all types and figures intended to foreshadow the sanctuaries of the Catholic Church. In the Holy of Holies of the great Temple of Israel they had only the Ark and the Tables of Stone. We, dear brethren, have the Real Presence in the Sanctuary of

After the close of the sermon the reverend After the close of the sermon the reverend speaker alluded to the Christian generosity of Captain and Mrs. Andrew Pizzini, to whom the congregation were indebted for the church building. It was the more commendable, said he, because they cannot hope for reward in this, but in the next world. He thanked them in the name of the Bishop and asked blessings on them. THE MUSIC.

The music was an attractive part of the ceremony, Mr. M. B. Leonard being at the organ and the mass was one of Millard's. the organ and the mass was one of Millard's, rendered by the following ladies and gentlemen in a devotional style: Sopranos, Mrs. Talley, Miss A. B. Kirk, Miss S. E. Rich and Miss Brannan, Altos, Misses Murphy, Randelph and Cocke. Tenors, Messrs, Talley and W. F. Reddy, Bassos, Messrs, W. L. Finnegan, Frank Morrissey and M. B. Leonard.

At the offertory, a tric, Mrs. Talley, Miss Murphy and Mr. Leonard, sang an "Ave Maria Stella." a beautiful composition.

Among the prominent Catholic citizens from Richmond present were Captain and Mrs. Andrew Pizzini, Dr. John Mahony.

Mrs. Andrew Pizzini, Dr. John Mahony Major John H. Dinneen and Messrs. John M. Higgins, Quigley, Cavanaugh, Fritz M. Higgins, Quigley, Cavanaugh, Fritz Sitterding (the builder of the church), Gerhard Ross, William Rankin, Philip 'Neil, William Daffron and Colonel John

Dr. Scott, of Ashland, entertained most hospitably the reverend clergy and the choir at his home after the services. Most of the visitors returned to the city at 1 o'clock, as the weather was very hot, and Richmond was found as cool as Ashland yesterday. The altar donated by the Bishop of Richmond has not yet come.

The church, which is a very neat structure, has a seating capacity of four hundred, and is in size 72x30 feet, with a steeple on the corner tower. It is attached to the parish of Fredericksburg, and frequent services will be held till the congregation is large enough to justify services every Sunday. The style of architecture is of the Gothic order, and the church is without galleries save the organ gallery. The sanctuary was decorated with stately palms and beautiful flowers, and the altar boys in attendance were from the cathedral in Richmond.

VOTE OF THANKS.

Before the train left for Richmond the of thanks to the citizens of Ashland, and especially the faculty of Randolph-Macon College, for kindness and attention to the

The band also came in for well-deserved this its initial appearance in public. Be-fore leaving for Ashland the Society of St. Anne attended mass at St. Mary's church, celebrated by the Rev. W. Baumgardner, O. S. B. The flowers on the altar were very thanks, for they pleased everybody on Father Gregory instructed the members of St. Mary's Band in music, and was proud of their playing Sunday.

ORDER OF IRON HALL. It is Alleged That There are Financial Troubles in the Management.

The members of the Order of Iron Hall in this city will doubtless be interested to know that a receiver has been asked for to take charge of the affairs of the Hall. The Philadelphia Record in its Sunday's issue publishes a special dispatch from Indian-apolis. Among other things said was as

"That a receiver has been asked for the Order of the Iron Hall has impressed this community and the insurance world that this is the beginning of the end of that

To-day the gravest reports are current 10-day the gravest reports are current involving the funds, which are or ought to be in the hands of the supreme officers. So far as they relate to the officers in general the reports have been indignantly denied, but an adequate denial was wanted inasmuch as the reports relate directly to Mr. Somerby, who is absent from the city and cannot, therefore, be heard. It is said that cannot, therefore, be heard. It is said that the funds of the order were depleted by the Keystone Bank failure in Philadelphia, and that subsequently Mr. Somerby and Mr. Hayes withdrew over half a million dollars from Indianapolis banks and deposited it in a Philadelphia bank in which they are interested, and which is said to be sustained by the funds of the order.

The reticence of the officers on important matters and the alleged unsatisfactory condition of the books have contributed to a loss of confidence, which is more or less Albert R. Baker, president of the Baker & Randolph Printing Company, is one of the three members who are asking for the appointment of a receiver.

"He was seen this afternoon and said:
"There are several reasons given in the application, but the chief one, and the one which precipitated our action was this:
The Iron Hall carries a cash capital of $1,-200,000. Of this sum $500,000 is kept here and $700,000 up the East. Mr. Somether is and $700,000 in the East. Mr. Somerby is vice-president of the Mutual, Banking, Surety, Trust and Safe Deposit Company of Philadelphia. Soon after the financial Philadelphia. Soon after the hancial flurry in the East several months ago, caused by the failure of the Keystone Bank, one-quarter of a million of dollars was removed from the control of the Supreme Council here and placed in this trust company under the control of Mr. Somerby. This information I received from a creditable source.

"We who are making the application are not dissatisfied with the workings of the order, but think there is something in the management that needs investigation. Rumors of financial trouble have been rife for a year, and at the time of that bank failure this trust company and the Iron Hall were spoken of as involved.'' A STORM AND SERMON.

Passengers on the Old Dominion Have Both on Their Way Here.

On the steamer Old Dominion, southbound from New York Sunday, were quite a large number of Richmond people, including Rev. J. D. Hart, of Richmond College, who was invited to preach. He took for his text. "By the Grace of God I Am What I " and all who heard him were delighted with his sermon

Among the Richmond people on board were Mrs. W. C. Adams and four daughters, Miss Blanche Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Colonel Archer of the Exchange. John M. Ragland and Bev. Ray Raglan The ship encountered a terrible storm in James river, just this side of Newport News, and was forced to anchor until it had passed. One of the masts was struck by lightning and the top of it damaged, but fortunately the fluid followed the guy ropes on either side and ran over the sides into the water. The most serious damage was the burning out of the electric light plant.

TOSSES ADJUSTED.

There Will Be Several Suits, it is Said, About the Elevator Fire.

The losses sustained by the elevator fire have been adjusted by the insurance men and those holding policies on grain in the elevator are being paid by the companies. The damaged grain is being collected and sold on account of whom it may concern, and the proceeds will be distributed pro rata among the owners. It is sold very cheaply, mostly to farmers for fertilizer purposes.

There are a number of complications growing out of the fire which will cause lawsuits between the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, the consignees and consignors. The chief trouble alleged is that the railroad company placed grain consigned to Richmond men in the elevator without notifying them and giving them a chance to insure it.

The Impure Water Question.

The exposure made by The Times Sunday of the impure quality of the drinking water of Richmond created a profound impression, not to say sensation, and the matter was commented on seriously in every group of citizens, no matter where assembled. There was an unusual demand for Sunday's Times, and everybody read the actions and there was but one opinion—that article and there was but one opinion—that the remedy suggested should be adopted at the earliest possible moment. A number of opinions of the people on this subject will

ADVICE OF MR. HENRY J. LAMBERT. WHOSE LONG AND SUCCESSFUL business career has made his name familiar in both Richmond and Norfolk, pays the following tribute to Dr. COATES, of 708 Frank-

NORFOLK, VA., July 21, 1892. Dr. L. P. Coates. Richmond, Va.:

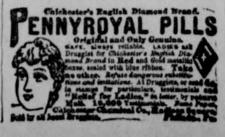

Dr. L. P. Coates. Richmond, Va:

Dear Sir.—It gives me great pleasure to testify in this manner to the relief you have given me from Catarrh, from which I have suffered for some time. I had constant headache, unpleasant taste in my mouth and a constant expectoration from accumulation of mucus in the throat, with loss of appetite and a general breaking down of the system. I am happy to say to-day I am relieved by your treatment from these ills and feel myself again. I trust that all who may be likewise afflicted with CATARRH will take advantage of your treatment and meet a speedy cure also.

Very respectfully, &c. Very respectfully, &c.,

HERE WE ARE

What are you wearing? It isn't possible that your feet are still encased in heavy win ter shoes at this season of the year! If this is not only possible but true, isn't it about time that you made a change and won't our Oxford Tie be a most decided change for the better? For a wonderfully light shoe it is wonderfully durable, and for a wonderfully good shoe the price is wonderfully light. Don't be surprised if it sees you through another season as well as this. Isn't economy in footwear getting pretty near its limit when we are selling such a shoe as this for $1.00 to $2.50.
